Mother's Cook Book

To each man is given a day, and his work for the day; And once and no more, he is given to travel this way, And woe if he flies from his task, whatever the odds; For the task is appointed to him on the scroll of the gods.
 —Edwin Markham.

CHRISTMAS SWEETS.

This year, as the supply of sugar is ample, we may again indulge in some of the delicious home-made candies and cakes. In homes where there is an abundant supply of maple sirup and honey (if you keep a tree and a bee) you are independent, as most dainty sweets may be made from these. Maple sirup makes the most creamy, fine flavored fondant if boiled undisturbed to the soft ball stage. Pour as usual on a marble slab or buttered platter and when cold beat to a cream and finish in the usual manner.

Pralines.

Boil one pound of dark brown sugar with just enough water to dissolve it, until it threads a fine strand from the end of a fork. Stir in one pound of pecan meats and when evenly mixed drop by spoonfuls on a marble slab or buttered platter. Flatten and round each one and, when cool, take up and pack in a cool place. They keep any length of time if kept dry and cool.

Peanut Candy.

Shell and roll with a rolling pin, one quart of peanuts. To two pounds of light brown sugar add six ounces (twelve tablespoonfuls) of butter, boil stirring constantly ten minutes, counting the time from the first bubble. Add the nuts just before turning out. Mark in squares before it gets hard.

Molasses Candy.

Take three cupfuls of molasses, one cupful of brown sugar, beat three minutes. Boil until it hardens in water, add one tablespoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of soda, and one tablespoonful of boiling water in which the soda is dissolved. Remove from the fire, pour on buttered plates and cool. Pull when cool enough to handle.

Peanut Butter Fudge.

Place two cupfuls of sugar and two-thirds of a cupful of milk in a granite sauce pan, stir until dissolved, then boil until the mixture forms a soft ball in cold water. Remove from the fire, add four tablespoonfuls of peanut butter, stir until melted then beat until creamy. Add one teaspoonful of vanilla and one-third of a cup of seedless raisins. Turn into a greased pan while it is still smooth enough to pack nicely. Cut in squares.

Orange Straws.

Weigh oranges whole and use pound for pound of sugar. Peel the oranges and cut the rind in shreds. Boil until tender, changing the water twice and beat gradually to boiling point, then boil twenty minutes with the peel. Remove from the pan and roll while hot in granulated sugar. Then place on paper in the oven to dry. Keep in a tightly covered receptacle.

BAND DANCE DRAWS CROWD

Playing true to reputation, the Torrance City Band dance held last Saturday evening, proved a great success. There was a large crowd present to dance to the lively music furnished by the band's orchestra, and many were attracted to the hall to try and win the beautiful Red Cross quilt, which was raffled off during the evening.

FORD SEDAN FREE

Several inquiries are being made of the "Enterprise" as to date of drawing for the Ford Sedan by those living in Torrance who purchased tickets. Mr. Sammons stated yesterday that just as soon as enough tickets were sold to guarantee $100 profit on the Sedan, the drawing will take place, probably the latter part of this week. Funds are to go towards building a new club house, the tickets being sold by the West Ebell Club of Western Avenue.

TORRANCE P.-T.A. MEET

The regular meeting of the Torrance Parent-Teacher Association will be held next Wednesday, February 9, at the school at 2:30 p. m. The date of meetings was changed at the last meeting from the second Tuesday to the second Wednesday, so that members could visit other associations, and in turn other organizations would be welcomed to attend the Torrance meetings. You are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Recent arrivals from the East are J. C. King, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McCormick of Kensington, Penn. who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. P. King of Andro Avenue. J. C. King is 88 year of age and father of E. P. King, while Mrs. McCormick is a sister. The visitors arrived Friday last and expect to be here for four months to enjoy Southern California climate.
